S.R.O. 63.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of collection and recovery of trade and profession tax and its refund in Amritsar Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board Amritsar in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (3) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-Laws for the Regulation of Collection and Recovery of Trade and profession Tax and its refund in Amritsar Cantonment.

1. On or before the 1st April of each year the Board shall cause to be prepared in Form 'A' appended to these bye-laws, an assessment list giving the names, addresses and trade or profession of persons liable to pay trade and profession tax and the amount of tax payable by them.

2. When such list has been prepared, the Board shall give public notice thereof and any person shall be at liberty to inspect it and to take extracts therefrom free of charge.

3. Any objection to an entry in the aforesaid list shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer within fifteen days of the publication of the notice referred to in bye-law 2, stating the grounds on which the objection is based and supported by documentary evidence, if any.

4. The Board shall cause all such objections to be considered and the Board shall make such amendments to the said list as may be found necessary; and a public notice to the effect that the list has been duly finalised shall thereafter be published.

5. The list referred to in bye-law 4 shall be in force upto the 31st March of the year next following and shall be conclusive evidence of the liability of persons mentioned therein to pay the respective amounts of tax indicated against their names.

6. Soon after the publication of the notice referred to in bye-law 4, the Executive Officer shall cause to be presented to each person included in the list referred to in bye-law 4, a bill for the tax payable by him, in the manner laid down in section 254 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924).

7. The amounts shown in the bills issued under these bye-laws shall be paid at the office of the Board within thirty days of the presentation of such bills.

8. The Board may at any subsequent time, for due and sufficient cause, amend the aforesaid list and the provisions of bye-laws 2, 3, 4 and 5 shall apply in respect of the list as so amended as they apply in respect of the original list:

Provided that if by the amendment, the name of a new assessee or place of business is inserted in or an existing name or place of business is omitted from such list, a notice to that effect shall be served on the person or persons affected thereby.

9. Every person commencing or ceasing to carry on a trade, profession or calling for which tax is payable shall, within fifteen days of such commencement or cesser, give intimation of the fact to the Executive Officer; and every person who is liable to pay tax and who changes the name of his firm or the nature of his trade, profession or calling or place of business shall likewise give intimation of such change to the Executive Officer within fifteen days of the change.

10. No refund or remission of tax, on the ground that the trade, profession or calling was carried on only for a portion of the assessment year only because it was discontinued before the end of the year or was commenced subsequent to the commencement of the year, shall become payable unless the person liable to pay the tax has reported that fact in writing to the Executive Officer, within fifteen days of the discontinuance or commencement, as the case may be, of such trade, profession or calling during that year.

11. The Cantonment Board shall also cause to be prepared in Form 'B' appended to these bye-laws, a demand and collection register in which the names of all persons liable to pay the tax shall be entered and shall cause such register to be corrected from time to time.

12. A contravention of the provisions of bye-law 9 shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

New Delhi, the 8th February 1967

S.R.O. 64.—The following Bye-laws for the control and supervision of Mills in the Cantonment of Badamibagh, made by the Cantonment Board Badamibagh. In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (17) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), the Cantonment Board of Badamibagh hereby makes the following bye-laws for the control and supervision of Mills in the Cantonment of Badamibagh, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-Laws for the Control and Supervision of Mills in the Cantonment of Badamibagh.

1. In these Bye-laws "Mill" means any mill for making flour, dall or oil, rice mill, textile mill, factory for the pressing or ginning of cotton or other manufactory worked by oil or electricity.
2. No mill shall be established after the coming into force of these bye-laws except within such areas as may be approved and notified by the Cantonment Board for this purpose.
3. (1) No person shall establish or maintain a mill except under a license in Form II annexed to these Bye-laws issued by the Cantonment Board.
(2) Every license so issued shall be displayed in a conspicuous place within the premises of the mill concerned.
4. The grant of license may be refused on any of the following grounds, namely:—
  - (a) that the application for license is not in proper form;
  - (b) that the applicant has not complied with the requirements of any of these Bye-laws.
5. The building or premises in which the flour mill is proposed to be installed shall—
  - (i) be situated at a reasonable distance from any place which gives out offensive smell such as latrine or cess-pit;
  - (ii) consist of a solid structure able to withstand the vibrations of the engine, with adequate space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure;
  - (iii) be paved with concrete or cement;
  - (iv) have cemented walls not less than 1.52 metres in height, with a ceiling roof and be properly ventilated and lighted;
  - (v) be provided with a place where customers can stand and watch their respective quantities being milled; and
  - (vi) have a roof not less than 3.66 metres in height.
6. A flour mill shall be used only for grinding food grains which are properly cleaned.
7. The machinery shall be fixed on a concrete foundation away from the walls of the building in such a manner that the vibration of the machine does not affect the building and the residents thereof, and shall be provided with a silencer.
8. In the case of mills run by oil, there shall be a chimney of adequate height so fixed as to eliminate nuisance and danger to persons residing in the neighbourhood on account of the smoke.
9. Every mill shall be worked only between the hours of 6.00 A.M. and 6.00 P.M. or between such hours as may specifically be laid down by the Cantonment Board in respect of that mill and shall be open for inspection during this period by the members of the Board, the Executive Officer and such other officers or servants of the Board as may be authorised in this behalf by the Board.
10. The premises of every mill and the apparatus and containers used therein shall be kept clean and the persons working therein shall be inoculated and certified as free from any infectious or contagious disease by the Medical Officer Incharge Cantonment Board Dispensary.
11. (1) Every application for license referred to in Bye-laws 3 shall be made within 15 days from the date of installation of a Mill in writing to the Executive Officer in Form I annexed to these Bye-laws.

(2) Such application shall be made in the case of any mill in existence on the date of coming into force of these Bye-laws within 15 days from that date.

NOTE.—Copies of the prescribed application form may be obtained from the Cantonment Board office on payment of twenty five paise only.

12. A contravention of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and in the case of continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day, during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

13. If the licensee commits any contravention of these Bye-laws, his license shall, without prejudice to the provisions of Bye-law 12, be liable to cancellation by the Executive Officer and no fresh license shall be granted to him until such time as he has carried out the orders of the Executive Officer to his satisfaction for the purpose of enforcing these Bye-laws.

14. Any person aggrieved by an order of the Executive Officer cancelling a license may appeal against such orders within 15 days from the date of such order, to the President, Cantonment Board.
